

QuickHMI basic training

as of Dec. 2019

We offer our training as a webinar.

This webinar is for anyone who is responsible for the design, planning, or development of HMI for software or machinery. You will get an overview of the QuickHMI system and an insight into the optimal usage.

Content basic training

- System overview and components QuickHMI
- Explanation of the development environment
- basic structure of a project
- Data sources and their configuration
- Data types & variables
- Overview Controls
- Creation of a visualization
- Overview creation of functions and assignments
- Creation of own svg controls
- Implementation of JavaScript
- Installation of a project on the server

Cost of the webinar for one person:

105,00€ + VAT

The minimum number of participants is 3 persons, the max. Number of participants is limited to 6. If the minimum number of participants for a webinar is not reached, we reserve the right to move the entire webinar to a later date. The webinar will be conducted in English.

As a technical requirement, a PC with Internet access and a telephone for conference calls are required.

To register please send us an email to training@indi-systems.de

We are happy to hear from them.